

White City Council Special Meeting Minutes

January 4, 2017

White City Council met on January 4, 2017 at 7 pm for a special meeting to discuss the finance officer position, the requirements and it's roles in the community. Two council persons were unable to attend, so a vote could not be taken, however, those in attendance discussed the qualifications desired to fill the vacant position. Also discussed were rate of pay, depending on experience and number of hours position would be required to fill.

Council person Hopfinger wrote up a long version of the job description, and Westberg created a shortened version for publication. A separate ad was created and submitted to the Tri-City Star newspaper, Brookings Register and Shopper News media outlets for print. Applications and descriptions are available for pick up in the city office lobby. Meeting adjourned at 8:32pm.

Candidates will be reviewed at the Feb. 6th regular council meeting scheduled for 7pm.
